

Art Exhibit by Artist Bettina Lesieur

Artist Bettina M. Lesieur's 8th Annual Art Exhibit will be held in her gallery from Dec. 5 through Dec. 21. This exhibit of over 100 oil paintings, ranging from miniatures to larger pieces, features landscapes of Duxbury and the South Shore area, Cape Cod and Islands, New Mexico, and Provence, France. Limited edition prints will also be available.

Lesieur's work is characterized as traditional, has been recognized with prestigious awards, and is collected in both the private and corporate sectors. Both parents were artists; her mother was an impressionist painter, fashion illustrator, and an instructor at the New England School of Fashion Design. Her father's career was in commercial art, and he was also an instructor at Boston University.
